Admiral George W. Anderson, USN (Ret.)
Chairman, President's Foreign
Intelligence Advisory Board
300 Old Executive Office Building

Dear Admiral Anderson:

Thank you for forwarding the memorandum of conversation between [redacted] This type of information is quite useful to analysts who, for a variety of reasons, are trying to get a better "feel" for this generation of Soviet military and political personalities.

As to the conversation itself, we believe [redacted] is correct in saying that [redacted] was asking certain questions on instructions. In addition, it is plausible that he was trying to propagandize in favor of the results of SALT I in order to counter criticisms made by certain U.S. spokesmen.

We hope that [redacted] will keep you, and us, in mind when he has future conversations with interesting characters like [redacted]

Sincerely,

Daniel O. Graham
Major General, USA
Deputy to the DCI for the Intelligence Community
